

Georgia Southern University

Digital Commons@Georgia Southern

Scholarly Communications Newsletters

Newsletters

2-2020

Scholarly Communications Newsletter

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/scholarly-newsletters>

Part of the Scholarly Communication Commons

This article is brought to you for free and open access by the Newsletters at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Scholarly Communications Newsletters by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

Scholarly Communications Newsletter

Georgia Southern University Libraries

Spring into Data!

Share the love by planning, preparing, and sharing your research data! Springtime is a great time to learn how.

- Love Data Week, Feb. 10-14

This Love Data Week, attend the Libraries' CTE workshop, Making Data Bearable 4-5pm, Feb. 12 — Cone 2029 (Statesboro) / Solms 207 (Armstrong)

Research and publication can add undue anxiety to the already stressful roles of university faculty. Join a team of specialist librarians as we walk you through the intricacies of research marketplace analysis, data management, and identity management. Together, we will develop a foundational knowledge of resources and services available to support all faculty researchers.

- Fair Use/Fair Dealing Week, Feb. 24-28
- Endangered Data Week, Feb. 25-Mar.1

For a complete schedule of Scholarly Communications workshops and events, see our calendar of events.

Resources & Tools

- iThenticate for Authors & Researchers: New from the Office of Research!

iThenticate is a tool for faculty researchers to check their unpublished manuscripts for potential citation errors and similarity to published works. iThenticate compares submissions to published academic journal articles, books, law reviews, patents, dissertations, conference proceedings and other materials. Currently, iThenticate is used by the NIH, NSF, as well as other federal funders, and more than 1500 publishers in their manuscript review processes.

For more information, see the Office of Research's iThenticate training page OR contact the Liaison Librarian for your discipline for assistance.

Updates from ICPSR

- Sign up for ICPSR's 2020 Summer Programs for Faculty and Graduate Students

- Teach with data? If so, check out these Data-Driven Learning guides from ICPSR. ICPSR's guides enhance teaching of core concepts in the social sciences. Topics are drawn from standard intro-level social science textbooks. New guides are continually added and topic areas expanded. An Instructor's Guide to the DDLG curricula is also available.
- Read ICPSR's most recent DataBytes newsletter.

ICPSR

Georgia Southern University is a member institution of the Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR).

For more about the University Libraries' Scholarly Communications resources and services, see our Scholarly Communications guide.